KUZCO

Founded in Surrey B.C. in 2006, Kuzco has been on a mission to create modern cutting edge designs using LED technology. Their well-priced designs are now imagined in their New York City Studio and manufactured to the highest quality standards and take great pride in being a family-owned company that has locations in Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and New York. If you love modern styles and LED technology, you will love Kuzco!

ALORA

The Alora brand was developed by the Kuzco Lighting team as an exploration of timeless elegance and luxury. Each individual collection is based on classical forms which are blended with modern designs and materials. Alora chandeliers, pendants, and sconces are timeless additions to any designer spaces.

alora mood

Alora Mood, as the name suggests, endeavors to set the right tone in your space. Their unique and timeless designs let you artfully recreate your mood. Designed to be chameleons, their fixtures are designed with cutting edge trends and built to stand the test of time. Alora Mood is a true designer brand that blends timeless design and modern elements.
